OLD SHAW COMEDY

FULL OF WHIMSICAL FUN

"The Philanderer" dates from the year it has been in some of his other plays. 1893 in the Shaw theatre. It was written after "Widowers' Houses," with its socialistic tendencies, and before "Mrs. Warren's Profession," from which it is New Scotch Play, "Kitty Mackay," altogether different. The last named play did not serve as it had been expected to, ause of the censor's intervention. The Theatre, In 1907 "The Philanderer" was uary 5. The joint engagement of "Th New York until Mr. Ames decided to at the Comedy will end on Saturday eve present it at the Little Theatre.

Delightful Fooling.

of his views, on marriage, for instance.

But it would be difficult to find anything but the broadest parody of human life in any scene of "The Philanderer" to-day. The sentimental, selfish, womanly to-day. The sentimental, selfish, womanly to-day. Philanderer's loves and the cerebral self-contained woman of really "advanced" ideas, who is the other, are assusingly exaggerated types to represent the play-Both breathe an ether created by their maker. The period of the play is 1890. It would readily be possible for some of the principles for which the Irish dramatist steed in 1893 to be made ridiculous today. The Ibsen Club, for example, might almost have been taken seriously by some at that time.

Lyceum Theatre To-day.

The first of Kitty Cheatham's annual holiday recitals will take place to-day in the Lyceum Theatre at 3 o'clock. Much new and valuable material, as well as some of the old favorites, will be given. An especially interesting group of old at that time.

Lyceum Theatre To-day.

The first of Kitty Cheatham's annual holiday recitals will take place to-day in the Lyceum Theatre at 3 o'clock. Much new and valuable material, as well as some of the old favorites, will be given. An especially interesting group of old at that time.

Author Ridicules His Ideas.

But the author has probably foreseen what twenty years would accomplish, and as it were he ridicules his theories in advance. They are all in "The Philanderer."

There are the doctor, who after discovering a disease on which all his fame is to depend lives to be convinced by other physicians that no such sickness exists: the dramatic critic, who is so sentimental the dramatic critic, who is so sentimental that he weeps at the mention of death:

But the author has probably foreseen day at the same place and time.

Cook his or her own supper, Mr. and Mrs.

Dana furnishing the food.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayard C. Hoppin, Misses street and Third avenue, fairly radiated with the attention of the site and caroline Le R. Webb, Marshall R. Kernochan and F. Burnil Hoffman, Jr., who have been guests of Mrs. Alexandre, returned to New York to-day. The rest of the Alexandre house party will return to-morrow. Mrs. Alexandre return to-morrow. Mrs. Alexandre will be devoted to the extention of the founders of the founders of the founders.

Cardinal Farley, John D. Crimmins, gestive purposes and then benefactors of the institution, some of the founders.

Cardinal Farley, John D. Crimmins, gestive purposes and then benefactors of the institution, some of the founders.

Cardinal Farley, John D. Crimmins, the food.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayard C. Hoppin, Misses street and Third avenue, fairly radiated Mrs. A special matines of "Prunella," under the auspices of the Junior Auxiliary of the days retired with the rank of Admiral, but never served with the rank of Admiral of the rank of the rank of Admiral of the that he weeps at the mention of death: the work of the exchange, which seeks privilege of being treated with as much consideration as a man in the club, and the usual talk about 10 the cub, and th cons'teration as a man in the club, and the usual talk about vivisection, eating meats and drinking alcohol, and the familiar hobbies—more familiar in those sarlier days than now. Throughout all the scenes between the philandering hero and his two loves is traceable the same theory of the relation between man and woman that Max Nordau imputed to Wagner in his operas. It is the woman who pursues—and love is for the man a species of sacrifice, a burden which grows heavier and heavier until escape from it he first scenes of "The Philanderer."

So there was only entertainment in the struggles of the expounder of Ibsen, Charstruggles of the expounder of Ibsen, Charteris, to free himself from the clinging and passionate Julia in order that he might enter into the same blissful relationship with the more analytical Grace. It was not altogether clear that the hero or with the other, since he met the charge that he loved all women by replying that he loved all women by replying that he never gave a bit less for one than the there. His admission of his irresistibility to the sex recalled the naive self-satisfaction of Grosvenor. While Charteris was the sex recalled the naive self-satisfactory of Grosvenor. While Charteris was a trustee for beauty, he fascinated the only a minute's interval, show the carry of the Ibsen Club and the succession of the philanderer to rid himfer of his temperamental sweetheart by trying her off to the doctor. The final in the doctor's office found Charteris. of his temperamental sweetheart by fiftieth performance in New York will make the doctor. The final be given to-morrow night.

In the doctor's office found Charteris, finiting as he was, bereft of any femily as he was, bereft of any femily as he was believed as he was believed the Novelty of the Play.

at the Longacre Theatre.

The first presentation of "The Whirl of the World," which is to be the new with. There are occasional sugress of an attempt to stage manage at Harmanus Bleecker Hall, Albany, on the Bethany to stage manage at the Longacre Theatre.

Colony Club.

Mrs. Stuart Duncan will give a the dansant this afternoon for her nephew, William M. V. Hoffman, Jr. much story as this the play contains w plays are loved. m wit. There are occasional sugat Harmanus Bleecker Hall, Albany, on January 6 and which, indeed, few if any of the Shaw dramas do possess. They are not to be enriched in fun or dramatic interest by any achievement of the "property of the "property of the "property of the same week."

Mimi Aguglia, the Italian actress will be seen this week at the Comedy Theatre in "Electra" in place of "Salome," which she presented last week. Instead of appearing before the production of the Marriage Game." The attraction at the Comedy Theatre, Mass Aguglia's performance will follow the longer offering. The curtain for "The Marriage Game" Will solve a better will golow the longer offering. The curtain for "The Marriage Game" Harriage Game "Bleet and the Colony Club.

The curtain for "The Marriage Game "Bleet and the Colony Club.

In St. Patrick's Cathedral this morning Miss Louise Ryan, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Ryan, will be married to Matthew P. Halpin.

Margaret Romaine has been engaged for the benefit of the Bethany Day Nursery, organized by Mrs. Ira Barrows and others, will be given to-night at the Plaza.

Miss Ada Bryce Gray will give a bincheon to-day at the Colony Club.

In St. Patrick's Cathedral this morning Miss Louise Ryan, daughter of Mrs. Which is now in rehearsal and which the Shuberts will present here next month.

Over all the episodes of these two acts the bust of the Norwegian dramatist

AT LITTLE THEATRE

It is true that the Little Theatre is the most appropriate home that could be found for "The Philanderer." It is not for all markets. Those who enjoy an intellectual flavor in their fun and can find pleasure outside the usual banalities of farce, treated in the usual way, will delight in it. There was such a public in this city for some of the other plays by the same author, and this drama should be as much appreciated even if the Perfect Shawite may find it inferior to the author's later works. broods quizzically.

The Acting of the Play.

Much of its success here will be the re-Acted by a Company From England Trained by the Dramatist.

"The Philanderer"—At the Little Theatre Leonard Charteris... C. aries Mande of race Trainfield.... Eri as Lascelfor Dr. Paramore. Reginald Besant Sylvia Craven... Reginald Besant Sylvia Craven... Reginald Besant Sylvia Craven... Reginald Besant Sylvia Craven... Murlet Reddail The Philanderer." (Alter Theatre is Bernard Shaw's "The Philanderer." (a

CHANGE AT COMEDY THEATRE

Begins Engagement on Jan. 5.

William Elliott's production of "Kitty as a substitute for "The Philanderer." MacKay," a new Scotch comedy by Cath erine Chisholm Cushing, will begin an en three were written for Grein's Independent gagement at the Comedy Theatre on Jan acted in London, but it was quite new to Marriage Game" and Mme. Mimi Aguglia ning next. Mme. Agugha will go to Bos ton, where she will be seen in a special repertoire of plays, and "The Marriage There are four acts of this delightful fooling, for that is all that fortunately is to be found in its content to-day, although there are grounds for believing that the playwright intended some of the characters to serve as the serious expression of his views, on marriage, for instance. But it would be difficult to find anything but the broadest parody of human the played part of the production. The cast of "Kitty MacKay" will include Molly McIntyre, who plays the title role and who played Bunty here: Eugene O'Brien. Ernest Stallard. Carrie Lee Stoyle, Eleanor Scott L'Estelle, Margaret Nybloc, Stapleton Kent, Carl Lyle, Clarice Laurence, Kate Wingfield, Henry thing but the broadest parody of human There will be a special dress rehearsal.

KITTY CHEATHAM RECITALS. First of the Hollday Series in the negro songs will be heard.

vier and heavier until escape from it appearance in America in New York instead of having a preliminary tour as part of his redemption. But these theories are all lightly touched in "The Philanderer." This is espetly true of the first act. There the por has to place his characteristic true. Esmond's own play, "Eliza for use.

author has to place his characters on the sacher and is too much occupied to expound. Then at this stage of his career stock company, succeeding Ramsey Wal-crowded. The Sunday special from town The was content to amuse without allace. He will make his first appearance amusing at the top of his voice, there next week in "The Girl and the day lunching at the club and enjoying the day lunching at the club and enjoying the winter sports.

The audience applauded the singers heartily, but before the handelapping died away a woman in that corner of the room winter sports.

which will be presented by Will- Alexander cottage.

The curtain will rise at 8:30 o'clock to-night at the first performance of "lole" at Harmanus Bleecker Hall, Albany, on January 6 and will be seen here later in Day Nursery, organized by Mrs. Ira Harthe same week.

demonstrative Julia, since she will not act like a lady, at least to receive her rival like a gentleman. Throughout the play the ripple of humor is always pleasant and formerly of "The Pink Lady," but now a dinner to-night at Sherry's for those the ripple of humor is always pleasant and it seems to grow faintest in the doctors discussion of his experiments during the scene in the library of the Ibsen Club.

And I Delmonico's.

Miss Romaine is a sister of Hazel Dawn, formerly of "The Pink Lady," but now a dinner to-night at Sherry's for those playing in "The Little Cafe," and has appeared at the Opera Combque in Paris, and in London under the management of the scene in the library of the Ibsen Club.

Convention, Earl Hall, Columbia University, 2:30 P. M.

Newsboys Home Club, entertainment, who will form the bridal party at the weather and Eleventh street, 8 appeared at the Opera Combque in Paris, and in London under the management of George Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Aldrich will give a dinner to-night at Sherry's for those who will form the bridal party at the weather and the columbia University, 2:30 P. M.

Newsboys Home Club, entertainment, who will form the bridal party at the special at the Opera Combque in Paris, and in London under the management of George Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Aldrich will give a dinner to-night at Sherry's for those who will form the bridal party at the second avenue and Eleventh street. Second avenue and Eleventh street, Se

SLEIGHING IN FAVOR AT LENOX. RICH PATRONS BRING Skating Also Attracts Many of the Younger Set.

LENOX. Mass., Dec. 28 -After church this morning the young people who had remained over for the week end fellowing the wedding of Miss Frances Constance Folsom on Saturday went skating. At Overlee, Samuel Frothingham's place, there were curling matches. Mr. and Mrs. William B. O. Field had a big skating art it it is to the same This afternoon Malcolm D. Sloane hired the largest sleigh in Lenox, "the Pride of the Berkshires," which carries forty, and luncheon in their cottages.

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Dana will give a The second and last of Miss Cheatham's holiday recitals will take place next Monday at the same place and time.

Supper and dance at the Len Club to-morrow night. Each of the guests will cook his or her own supper, Mr. and Mrs.

WINTER SPORTS AT TUXEDO. Committee Prepares Programme New Year's Day.

New Year's, which will include skating races, should the ice be in condition. The toboggan slide will also be put in shape

Society enjoyed the skating on the Wee

Scott Miss Scott, Miss Helen Judson, E. Parks, H. G. Pell, P. G. Chapman, Stetson, Newell Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. Melcolm D. Whitman.

Notes of the Social World.

Dances will take place to-night at the

JOY TO FOUNDLINGS

Cardinal Farley Among Guests at New York Hospital Christmas Party.

CHILDREN DANCE AND SING

Little Ones Get Presents and Make Merry Around

If there was any pathetic significance to the picture it was not apparent, except to a few perhaps who sat near a corner in the rear of the hall, when two little girls in pretty white frocks with red ribbons in their blond curls stepped between the parting curtains, bowed and sang their piece, It was short and sweet and the last line ran, "It takes a little rain with the sunshine to make the world go Tound."

The audience applauded the singers heartly, but before the handclapping died away a woman in that corner of the room.

The audience applauded the singers heartly, but before the handclapping died away a woman in that corner of the room.

The audience applauded the singers heartly, but before the handclapping died away a woman in that corner of the room.

The audience applauded the singers heartly, but before the handclapping died away a woman in that corner of the room.

The audience applauded the singers heartly, but before the handclapping died away a woman in that corner of the room. TUREDO, Dec. 25 .-- The winter sports' to a few perhaps who sat near a corner in committee is preparing a programme for the rear of the hall, when two little girls

a boy, and "The Robin's Secret," by two said he did not think the foundlings had In the doctor's office found Charters.

In response to a number of requests from fellow actors, Sir Johnston Forbescompanion. But he was happy in event and one had the idea that his landering was altogether ineradicable.

In response to a number of requests from fellow actors, Sir Johnston ForbesRobertson will give a dinmer dance to-night at the Ritz-Carlton for her niece, Miss May Duncan Watson.

The first for this winter of the Colony

The first for this winter of the Colony he was glad to see among the audience faces which he had seen there for twenty years or more.

Then every one went to the nursery in the big hall. The forty entertainers marched in by twos hand in hand and received a present. A large Christmas tree was lighted in the centre of the room and delivery the contract of the room. and children and grownups were happier than ever.

PLEIADES COME DOWN TO DINE. Leave Art Long Enough to Tell That One About the Farmer.

When the Pleiades Club cutups sat components of their weekly dinner naturally the spread was held at the Hotel Brevoort for the reason that Fifth avenue and Eighth street is right in the heart of thinks, for Washington Square, where Sam Adams, Al Thomas Tommy Buchannan and all the other great writers come from, is only a block away, and Macdougal alley, which pruduces all the great paffiters and scriptors in the known world, is right around the

the Tree.

the Tree.

The noner guests included Mrs. John Jerome Rooney, Mrs. Gale W. Spaulding,
Mrs. Aime Greene Abbott, Mrs. Frank
Ober, Mrs. Randolph Trabert, Mrs. Henry
Gaines Hawn and Miss Lyrian L. Dodds.
Ellison von Hoose, a tenor songbird, was the remaining honor guest sitting with the street and Third avenue, fairly radiated is a very popular Elk : Joe Lemon, G. Warthemselves, received their greeting, heard Pleiades, and many, many others made their merry songs and recitations and applicated their pretty dances that were perfected by the patient training of the states.

Their merry songs and recitations and very, very merry. Ed Foley leading off the cloak and suit sushess in this city, died on Saturday at his home, 310 West was up with that sood one about the Maine farmer who said he was on his way and was bern in Selma, Ala.

To Bangor to git drunk, and gosh dern it Mr. Rothschild came to New York when programme began with a greeting to the patrons and the Cardinal, who presented, by a little girl who sang her a heighbor we want to show our appreciation for what we owe him and a boy, and "The Robin's Secret," by two wish him success in his new post."

| Programme began with a greeting to thousands of New Tork Tammies for a very long willies to come," said Pr. Important than it had been since the civil war.

| Gen. Tillinghast was a son of the late thousands of the patrons and the Cardinal, who presented the content of the patrons and the Cardinal, who presented the civil war. a boy, and "The Robin's Secret," by two three-year-old girls, were followed by the lancers, danced by four sets of loys and girls in quaint costumes of 1813. Other children recited pieces too, each one with a lesson to be learned. Six boys and girls danced a "Nantucket" and a few more planted a "joily tree" with plenty of good things for the good.

At the close of the entertainment Cardical Cardinal Cardi nal Farley had the young players assembled on the stage to thank them for their greeting and excellent performance. He Brown and Prof. John H. MacCracken of New York University, President John HOSTESS AND ENTERTAINER.

Dinner to Police Commissioner Waldo, Waldorf-Astoria, 7 P. M.
International Institute for Young Women, Christmas party, 9 Second avenue, 8 P. M.
Six Barrows, Mrs. Hobreok Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. M.
Dinner to Coroner Jacob Shongut, Burliand's Casino, 7 P. M.
Dinner to Coroner Jacob Shongut, Burliner to Coroner Jacob Shongut, Bu

When the Pleiades Club cutups sat charitable work.

mmy Buchannan and all the other rat writers come from, is only a block ay, and Macdougal alley, which process all the great paffirers and sculptors the known world, is right around the coast, died yesterday at his home, Wilton Lodge, Portsmouth. He was born in 1833.

Mrs. Von Juch Wellman Sings for sang with great finish and style composi-tions of Richard Strauss, Martini and Wolf Lewis Williams, a young American played piano soles, and Victor Harris was at the piano for Mrs. Wellman.

Homestead Prepares for New Year's Feativities.

Hot Springs, Va., Dec. 28.—New Year's eve will be celebrated at the Homestead by an entertainment by colored cabaret singers and a dance in the Japanese room, where a supper will be served. Dr. De Schweinitz arrived from Phila-delphia to-day for the early part of January. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bry of New York, who were married last week at the Hotel Gotham, are here to begin he New Year.

Mrs. F. H. Thompson of Dobbs Ferry this morning joined Miss Masters and Miss Sarah Masters, and the party will be at the Homestead till the last of this

Dr. Edward E. Hicks of Brooklyn is here with George W. Baker of New York. Mrs. Henry Ives Cobb. Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Loring Gillett of New York are other late arrivals from New Among those in the lobby for afternoon tea or later, for the Sunday evening concert, were Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Farrar, Mr. and Mrs. S. Roos, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Eyre, Beverly Norris, R. T. H. Barnes and Mrs. C. W. Smith.

cyril Maude, the actor, and his daughter, Miss Maude, gave a private dinner at the Vanderbilt Hotel, Thirty-fourth street and Park avenue, last night to Sir Johnston and Lady Forbes-Robertson, Laurette Taylor, John Drew, Ethel Barry-more and other stars now playing in New last evening performance, at least tem-

John Craig Havemeyer, nephew of William F. Havemeyer, founder of the Havemeyer sugar interests, was married in November in some small town in Massachusetts to Mrs. Maude Therburn Backus, widow of Foster L. Backus, at one time District Atterney of Kings county.
Mr. Havemeyer confirmed the report of the marriage last night. He said he did not know the data event that the said he file of the said he had called at the City Hail with that in view.

the marriage last night. He said he did not know the date, except that it was in November and he thought it was somewhere around the middle of the month. "It was in some little town in Massachusetts," he said, "but I don't know Mr. Robinson, "to determine once and keeps hers at 140 Riverside Drive. They Phifor-West.

WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 28 .-- Miss Effle cartoonist on the Worcester Telegram, and formerly of New York, were married here indorse the picture. Norman Hapgood to-day by the Rev. Dr. Andrew D. Chalmers of Plymouth Church. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. West of Duxbury, first met Mr. Phifor last spring when he was interested in

ADMIRAL SHOLTO DOUGLAS. Took Part in Slave Blockade on African Coast From 1860 to 1864.

Once a year the Pleiades, "organized to foster the arts," gives a "ladies' night epread, presided over by a radiant toast-mistress of course rather than the conventional soup and fish clad mere male taost-master. Last night the Pleiades had as their guests of honor the toastmistresses of past ladies' night performances.

The monor guests included Mrs. John Jerome Rooney, Mrs. Gale W. Spaulding.

J Henry Rothschild, one of the founders amusing at the top of his voice. There next week in "The circ have the effort to be funny by main force the farm to the funny by the funny to the funny by main force the farm to the funny by main force the farm to the funny by main force the farm to the funny to the funny by main force the farm to the funny by main force the farm to the funny to the funny to the funny to the funny the funny that the club and should as lunching at the club and enjoying the way a woman in that corner of the room choked a sob behind a heavy veil, rose form her seat and went out. Perhaps a from her seat and will-and olum-r E. Peace of Northfield and Excise Commis-sioner of Richmond county. He was the senior elder of the Summerfield M. F. Church. He was a director in the Rich-mond Fire Insurance Company and a member of the North Shore Volunteer Firemen's Association. H three children survive him. His wife and YONKERS, Dec. 28 .- James Whitehead Her Guests at Musicale.

Mrs. Von Juch Wellman gave a musicale yesterday afternoon at her home, 103 East Soventy-fifth street, being at the same time hostess and entertainer. She same with great finish and style compositions of Richard Strauss, Martini and Wolf. Lewis Williams, a young American Wolf. Lewis Williams, a young American three children.

HOT SPRINGS TO CELEBRATE. SLAVE FILM BACKER THREATENS RAIDERS

Warns Police of "Trouble" if Show at Protest Meeting Is Stopped.

PLANS FIGHT TO FINISH

Hints That Curious May Not Have to Pay Cash to Get Minds Improved.

of Reviews, announced yesterday that the fund had entered actively in the fight on CYRIL MAUDE GIVES DINNER. behalf of the photo play "The Inside of the White Slave Traffic." He said the organization, which fostered the produc-Robertsons and Other Stars. tion of "Damaged Goods" in this city, had organization, which fostered the produc-Cyril Maude, the actor, and his daugh- decided to retain John B. Stanchfield to

Music was furnished by a negro or Bijou Theatre secured is returnable toporarily, for the temporary injunction the day before Justice Gavegan, who vacated JOHN C. HAVEMEYER MARRIED. the temporary injunction the pic-Wedded Mrs. M. T. Backus in No- ture, financially or otherwise, hardly exvember-Doesn't Remember Where. favor regarding the Bijou Theatre. Acpect Justice Gavegan to decide in their John Craig Havemeyer, nephew of Will- cordingly they are going ahead with their

Mr. Havemeyer is a member of the brokerage firm of Wood & Havemeyer of of New York may constitute themselves 43 Exchange place. He got a divorce from his former wife in September. Mr. Havemeyer still keeps his apartment at 1925. West End avenue and his wife still that The House of Park House the judges and censors in our community. that "The House of Bondage," which was raided when produced in The Bronx, will reopen on Broadway on January 12 under our auspices.

"There will be a tremendous mass meeting some night this week to protest against the action of the police and to will be chairman of the meeting and addresses will be made by airs. Inez Milholland Bolssevain, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Dr. Frederic C. Howe, Dr. James P. Warthasse and other properties. P. Warbasse and others whose names will be announced later."

Threatens "Trouble" if Raided.

Threatens "Trouble" if Raided.

Mr. Robinson said that at this meeting of protest the picture would be exhibited and that if the police interfered there would be "trouble." He also said that Christabel Pankhurst's "Plain Facts About a Great Evil" would be published this week and put on sale.

Robert L. Turk, who has been the lawyer for the Moral Feature Film Company, which made the picture, said yesterday that Justice Gavegan's adverse decision stopped the production at the Park Theatre only temporarily. He may appeal for help to the courts of Brooklyn. "I think we will find." he said, a Brooklyn Justice whose mind won't run in the same direction as Justice Gavegan's, one not so narrow minded. He will. in the same direction as Justice Gavegan's, one not so narrow minded. He will grant us an injunction that will probably us an injunction that will probably keep the police from interfering, although you can't tell about the police. I think that perhaps the only thing that would keep the police away is the militia."

MARRIED.

FLINCH - FITZSIMMONS -- On Decembe or. Peters of Hoboken, N. J. Armand Plinch to Miss

Gerty Pitzsimmons. DIED.

FOOTE -Suddenly, at her home, 143 West minster avenue Elizabeth, N. J., Sunday, December 28, Miss Julia M. Foote. Notice of funeral here FORCE -On December 17, 1913, Edwin A

Funeral from 151 East 125th street, at 2 P. M. Tuesday Interment at con-venience of the family GHALIES — Mary Gillies. Services "THE FUNERAL CHURCH!" 141 West Twenty-third street (Frank E. Campbell Bidg.). Time later. Automobile cortege.

GRANT—At Montclair, N. J. on Sunday, December 28, 1913, Helen Louise, young-est daughter of James Pierce and Drue Underwood Grant, uneral services at the residence of her parents, 136 North Mountain avenue, on Tuesday, December 30, at 2 P. M. Cincinnati, Ohio, and Kentucky papers please copy HOPPER.-On December 28, at Hotel Wood stock, Maria Colfax Ward, widow of Dr. Henry A. Hopper of Hackensack. Funeral and interment at Hackensack.

LYON - On Friday, December 24, 1913, Kate Emma Pinckney, wife of Dr. Edward D. Puneral service will be held at the restdence of her son, Orient C. Finckney 783 West End avenue, New York city, on Monday, December 29, at 8 P. M. PARET.—On December 27, at her residence, 101 West Eighty-fifth street.

Anna Elizabeth Paret, wife of the late Henry Paret and daughter of the late
Dr. Jahial Parmly and Ann Hutchings

Parmly. Funeral services will be held at the Col legiate Church of St. Nicholas. Fifth avenue and Forty-eighth street, at 19:50 A. M., Tuesday, December 30

POMEROY - Suddenly, at Greenwich, Conn., December 26, 1918, at 6 A.M., Mrs. Theodore Laurence Pomeroy, nee Louise

Crane, of Pittsfield, Mass.
short service will be held her late residence at Bellehaven, Greenwich. Sunday afternoon at 4:30. Body leaves New York on 8.51 train Monday for Pittsfield, where services will be held at St. Stephen's Church at 2:30. Interment Pittsfield Cemetery.

RAYNOR —At his home, 558 Palisade avenue, Yonkers, N. Y. Sunday, December 28, 1913, James Whitchead Raynor, son of the late Samuel and Sarah Dodgs Raynor, in his seventy-fifth year.

Puneral services at St. Paul's Church, Yonkers, Tuesday, December 30, at 11 REED.—On Saturday morning, December 27, at the Neurological Hospital, New York city. Dr. Roward B. Reed, in his thirtieth year, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Reed and beloved husband of Mabel Dennis Reed of Scabright, N. J. Funeral service will be private.